Commercial on 0.42 Acres

NONE, Didsbury, Alberta

Attention warehouse renters? Food grade building with lots of room and open space for numerous types of businesses. Must be seen to be appreciated. Potential for food handling, and many other uses. Built originally in mid 90s as a cheese factory. Well built with infloor heating, refrigeration room, and office space. Recently approved for manager/caretaker suite (which requires code renos if pursued). consists of 2 adjoining buildings: north side close to 4000 square feet, and South side close to 5000 square feet. 3 bathrooms, office area, lunchroom, storage areas, mezzanine, shipping receiving (but no dock). wide open, clear span spaces suitable for manufacturing, marketplace, etc. in-floor heating in majority of building. Metal clad. Town of Didsbury is very good to work with for various uses. If rents are eating up your bottom line, ownership may be the answer.

Built in 1996
