This former showhome was a benchmark for all of Drake Landing and wasn't lived in until 2008. From the moment you arrive, you'II notice the striking exterior brick work that was one of the "extras― added, while the uniquely covered front porch offers weather protection for all your amazon packages. Inside you'II notice the warm and inviting space featuring chalkboard wallpaper and formal front living room with vault to showcase the appealing iron and wood staircase. The rear family room offers ample space for the whole family and is separated from the kitchen and dining area by a cozy three-sided fireplace. The kitchen features a spacious island and walkthrough pantry to the laundry room and heated garage, making grocery drop-off a breeze.
