This one-of-a-kind 26.35 acre property is only 9 minutes from the City of Calgary and just 1 mile North of the beautiful 27-hole Serenity Golf Course. Rge Rd 274 is fully paved, bordering the property on the entire East side. Sporting nearly 3000 trees, this former tree farm is an ideal place to come in a build your dream home in a fully established yard site OR it provides the unique opportunity for future development and a lucrative investment opportunity. The property boasts (2) ponds and a WID irrigation canal that runs the west border of the property. The home on the property is 1285 sq ft with 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom and a single attached garage. There is a double detached garage and a Quonset. There is a well, septic and power, the furnace is currently run on propane. In the winter of 2024/25, the propane bottle ran out, causing the furnace to shut off and now there are burst pipes in the plumbing. The furnace and hot water heater are not currently working and water damage to the floor was sustained. Selling with the home is the stove, dishwasher, washer, dryer, and window coverings. There is an equipment auction happening on the property on May 28th, 2025 and all unattached goods will be removed by June 4th, 2025. The propane tank, trailer, seacans and all outbuildings on skids will be sold in the equipment auction and are not included with the property. With TLC, the property as it sits can be your country oasis yet with amenities such as pavement to the property and proximity to Calgary, this property could become a once-in-a-lifetime real estate investment with incredible returns.
